

General description of the professional educational program

Program name	101501.06.7 Sport tourism
Description	The master's educational program is consists of the following main educational units: General and professional courses: The presence of general and professional courses in the program is aimed at ensuring the professional in-depth theoretical knowledge and sports tourism abilities of the Master degree students. General courses include the subjects "Professional Introduction", "Specialized English", " Specialized Russian", "Information Technologies", and the subjects "Emergency situations in Tourism", "Rescue Operations in Tourism" and "Historical-Cultural Tourism" in the professional section. In individual cases, based on the professional need, it is possible to include other general and professional courses at the expense of the number of hours allocated to the component of specialized preparation courses. Research Section: The research educational block includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Research work. is an analytical and research work performed within the scope of the master's thesis topic.• Research practice. is a practical work aimed at imparting to the students of the educational program the necessary experience and skills to successfully complete the master's thesis.• Professional practice: envisages the teaching of a professional subject, the purpose of which is the acquisition and improvement of pedagogical experience. Master's thesis defense. is the final stage of the educational program, the purpose of which is to present a summary research within the framework of the topic of the master's work.
Degree awarded	Master of Tourism
Level of National Qualifications framework	7 th level of National Qualifications framework
Credits	60
Teaching form	Full-time
Program duration	1 year
Teaching language	Armenian
Tuition fee	600.000 AMD

Learning outcome	Professional knowledge and expertise At the end of this program, the student will be able to: A 1. To clarify the main scientific concepts, theories of sports tourism, his approaches. A 2. To present the organizational management structures of sports tourism, to describe the methodology of operative management of risks when they arise, and the current problems of culture and psychology of managing them. A 3. To analyze information related to sport tourism, adventure and ecotourism. A 4. To distinguish the separate approaches of studies made in tourism and their features / sociological, economic-scientific, cultural, geographical, etc./. B. Professional practical abilities and skills At the end of this program, the student will be able to: B 1. Assess tourism resources and infrastructure. B 2. Apply PR information technologies in order to solve the objectives of sport tourism. B 3. Conduct research, analysis and reporting using scientific research methods. B 4. Implement the planning of the organization of tourist activities, drawing up and modeling of projects B 5. Present the ethical and legal norms regulating human and environmental relations. G. General (transferable) abilities At the end of this program, the student will be able to: C.1. Make effective use of various sources of information in native and foreign languages. C.2. Apply knowledge in practice, formulate and solve problems. C.3. Maintain the norms of professional ethics, first aid and civil protection rules. C.4. Do team work.
Career opportunities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • RA public schools, • RA sports schools, • vocational schools and colleges (implementing programs based on basic general education), • pre-school institutions, orphanages, • extracurricular educational institutions, • summer houses, rest area, health improving organizations, • manufacturing enterprises, sports federations, • adventure tourism centers and clubs, • municipalities and regional governorates.