

National Sports Academy "Vassil Levski"

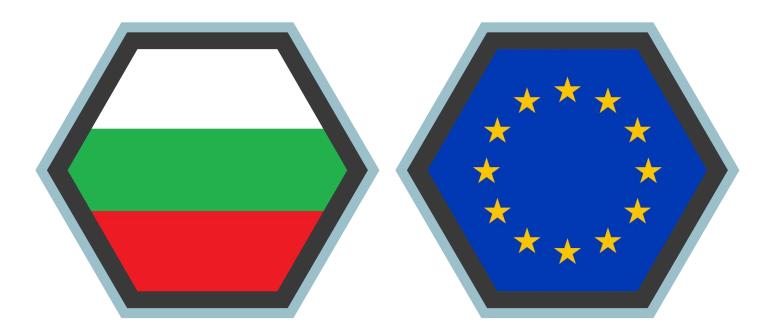

BULGARIA

Bulgaria is a country in Southeast Europe. Located west of the Black Sea and south of the Danube river, Bulgaria is bordered by Romania to the north, Serbia and North Macedonia to the west, Greece and Turkey to the south. Sofia is the capital and the largest city. The city also hosts 23 of Bulgaria's 51 higher education establishments and more than 105,000 university students

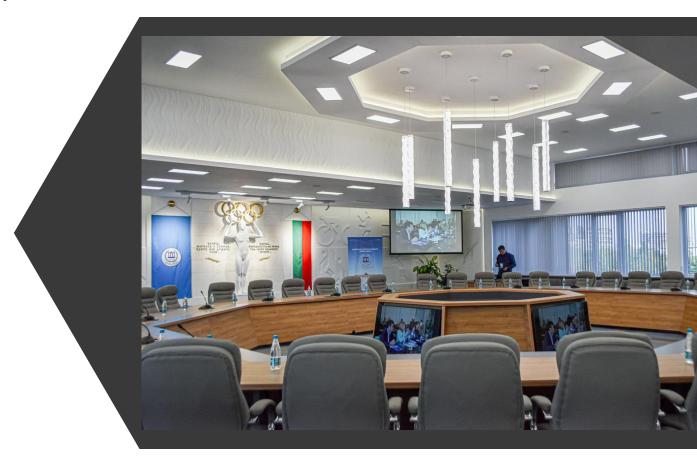

National Sports Academy "Vassil Levski"

The National Sports Academy "Vassil Levski", usually referred to as the NSA, is Bulgaria's leading higher education institution specialized in teaching physical education, sports and physiotherapy. It is named after the national hero Vassil Levski.

The Academy was established in 1942 by a decree of Tsar Boris III as the Higher School for Physical Education. It was named Higher Institute for Physical Education and Sport from 1953 to 1995. In 1995, by decision of the National Assembly, it was renamed the National Sports Academy. Discover a new, modernly-equipped educational building in the Student Town in Sofia.
